

GIRLS OF 21 TO 22 URGED TO REGISTER

Mrs. George A. Piersol Asks Younger New Voters to Register Tomorrow

DR. THOMAS SENDS APPEAL

An urgent appeal was issued today by Mrs. George A. Piersol, chairman of the Philadelphia League of Women Voters, calling on all girls of twenty-one, or those who will be twenty-one by November 2, to register at the polls tomorrow.

Tomorrow is the third and last registration day for the general election in November. "The assessment law affects only voters of twenty-one and over," Mrs. Piersol explained. "Girls of twenty-one may vote on the same as men. None can refute that, because it is the law. This group should certainly come out and register."

Among those who will register tomorrow are 2850 women whose names were yesterday ordered placed on the assessors' lists by a decision of the Election Court. Bryn Mawr College will observe a holiday November 2. Many of the girls are old enough to vote, and Dr. M. Carey Thomas, president, decided today that they should be given every encouragement to exercise their new civic privilege.

Doctor Thomas has sent an appeal to other girls' schools in Philadelphia and vicinity requesting that they join Bryn

University Activities

Scheduled for Today

12:30 m.—All-University chapel, Weightman Hall.
8 p. m.—Philomathean Literary Society, first freshman reception of the year in its rooms in College Hall.
8 p. m.—Zealophilic Literary Society, first freshman reception of the year in its rooms in College Hall.

Mawr in observing election day as a holiday.

Bryn Mawr students will not only vote, but will stand at the polling places to receive donations for the $500,000 fund for the Anna Howard Shaw memorial. Pretty debutantes will assist the college girls, as will subdebs and trained nurses in Philadelphia and along the Main Line.

Veterans of the Women's Relief Corps, the auxiliaries of the Grand Army, will assist in the work. All over the nation similar efforts will be put forth on November 2 to swell the funds for the Shaw memorial.

PENN HEARS McCracken

Former Football Star, Now Missionary. Addresses Students

Dr. Josiah McCracken, former football star at the University of Pennsylvania and for a number of years engaged in medical missionary work in China, was the principal speaker at the University chapel this noon in Weightman Hall.

On every Friday throughout the year it is planned to bring the students together to listen to a speaker outside the University, but one who has a message for the students. Acting Provost Penniman conducted the chapel today.

FOOTBALL RALLY TONIGHT

Penn Students Will Parade in Preparation for Tomorrow's Game

The first football rally here of the year will be held tonight at the University of Pennsylvania in preparation for tomorrow's game with Bucknell University. The rally will start with a parade and end with a program of speeches at the training house.

The students will gather in the dormitory triangle at 7 o'clock, and will march through the quadrangle and across the campus, gathering men, especially freshmen, along its path. They will proceed to Franklin Field, where they will listen to members of the football team at the training house.

Coch John Heisman, Captain "Bud" Hopper and others will speak. The University Band will make its first appearance of the year in heading the parade. The rally is in charge of Charles L. Thompson, editor-in-chief of the Pennsylvania, the student daily paper.

And He's Proud of It
William Kline, no home, who told Magistrate Oswald today he was "An American bum and proud of it," when arraigned for drunkenness today in the Nineteenth and Oxford streets station, was given thirty days in the House of Correction.

STATE FIREMEN MEET OCT. 5
The forty-first annual convention of the Firemen's Association of the state of Pennsylvania will take place at Allentown on October 5, 6 and 7. Judge Bonniwell, president of the association, yesterday announced that Samuel M. Vancina will address the convention on "Reconstruction Problems." Charles A. Snyder, auditor general, will speak upon "Domestic Problems in Pennsylvania," and James T. Curtlyson, director of public safety and himself a member of the state association, will speak upon "Fire Problems in Municipalities."

KOLYNOS DENTAL CREAM Saves Your Teeth The CAPTIVE CAP Saves Kolynos

KOLYNOS made its reputation purely on its merits, because there was an immense unoccupied field for a dental cream which would clean the teeth without injuring them and leave the whole mouth in a purified, sweet, healthful condition. While this new Captive Cap is attracting greatly increased attention to Kolynos, it is simply another step forward, devised to insure tube protection, just as Kolynos insures mouth protection.
